

Reality of fake agents

Before handing over your hard earned money to the agent

STOP

Look for the following alarming signs/false claims

- Legal migration process is complicated and the cost is very high
- Availability of work permit on your arrival in the destination country
- Getting the job right away without any assessment of skills and experience
- Your travel will be safe and easy
- Vague job requirements and job description
- Typing and grammatical errors in the e-mails/online correspondence
- Do not deal with the people/companies who are offering jobs through social media
